

Description	Name of body	Nature of interest
A position of general control or management of any body directed to charitable purposes		Under Cheshire East Council's Member Code of Conduct, as an elected or co-opted member of the Council, you must register the following Personal Interests. Failure to register and/or declare Personal Interests, can leave the Council open to challenge. Impact upon the reputation of the authority and result in a Member being found to be in breach of the Member Code of Conduct.
A position of general control or management of any body whose principle purposes include influencing of public opinion or policy (including any political party or trade union)		A position of general control or management of any body to which you have been appointed or nominated by the Council.

Please note that in addition to classes of personal interest set out above, you will have a personal interest in any business of the authority where a decision in relation to that business might reasonably be regarded as affecting your wellbeing or financial position or the wellbeing or financial position of a "relevant person" to a greater extent than the majority of other Council tax payers, ratepayers, or inhabitants of the electoral division or ward, as the case may be, affected by the decision. Due to the nature of such interests, it is not practical to seek to register the same, but you must make an appropriate declaration and take appropriate action (where the personal interest is also a prejudicial interest) if you are present when such business arises.

Please see the Member Code of Conduct and the guidance notes for a definition of a "relevant person" and for further information on prejudicial interests, pre-determination and bias.
